

Edyta Satchell, Director of Business Development
VAX VacationAccess® Worldwide

Edyta Satchell has more than 10 years experience in the travel industry with extensive background in GDS and travel technology product management and working closely with travel agencies.

Most recently, Satchell held several leadership positions with RADIUS Travel Management, including Director of RADIUS Product Portfolio and Director of Multinational Corporate Sales, where she was responsible for implementation of the RADIUS travel management consolidation sales strategy.

Satchell worked in both the UK and the US for Worldspan\Travelport as a Product Manager and was responsible for developing strategies and managing a portfolio of products.

Prior to the travel industry, she worked for Baltona Foreign Trade Company in Poland as tourism and logistics manager and was the head of the ISO quality department reporting into the company president and CEO. Satchell is a certified ISO Quality Manager and has a Master's of Science degree in hotel and tourism management and a post-graduate diploma in management.